BUCK MASSIE'S FAST RACE

J. M. Murphy's Hanover-Triana fast horse Buck Massie clipped a quarter of a second off the local seven furlongs record at Harlem yesterday. The race was an owners' handicap, and Buck Massie was in at ninety pounds against Laureate, Lady Hamilton and Lady Callahan. There was an English remittance aspect about his chances as mapped out by the ring. He was never better than 1 to 4-a long price.

The handsome, brave and sturdy horse danced in. Tommy Burns rode him. He got the colt away in front and he stayed there. The seven furlongs were covered in 1:26. It displaced Imp's 1:262 made last August with ninety-seven pounds up.

Tony Licalzi & Co. cleared enough to buy another house on Esplanade street over Al fresco's win in the first race. There were fif-teen starters. Al Fresco was made a 3 to 1 chance. From that short price the colt was backed down to 11 to 5. He was far the best, Master Burns rode him and was shut off and interfered with. Winners overcome difficulties and so did Al Fresco. He came from far back on the turn, caught Udah, the second choice, below the sixteenth pole, ran her to fragments and won in the last few strides by less than a Roman nose. Ialaria, who was third, was a 25 to 1 shot in the one-two-three books, beat Sir Hobart a short head.

The second race, a selling dash at a mile, was the best betting race of the day. Muskalonge opened at 2 to 1, was backed down to 6 to 5 and then receded a point. Ace, the natural favorite, had a bad reputation for carrying weight. His price arose from 6 to 5 to 2th to 1. This was beaten down to 2 to 1. Rudolph was backed from 10 to 6, and Lady Inez was also supported. Ace won in a buoyant way. He isn't any too good as a weight carrier, but a good horse can carry a ton and beat bad ones under owners' handicap weights. Muskalonge was a distant third.

The two-year-old race had Daily Racing Form favorite. He was the correct choice. The colt ran less than the race he should have run and was beaten by Dave Waldo, who led from flag fall to finish. Knowles ran in such fashion that he may be expected to win in the near Gold Band, well ridden by Morgan, beat Sunburst a short head for the fifth race and Mary Kinsella, old Patrick's half sister, had merely a saunter in the last.

Pacemaker was backed for a good thing in the last but ran a bad race.

MALVOLIO'S GOOD RECORD

One of the best colts in the West, John Fay's onso—Flyaway youngster, Malvolio, is pictured in DAILY RACING FORM this morning. It is a question whether Malvolio or Traverser is best of the Western two-year-olds of 1897. The colts have not met and will not meet, as Traverser is on his way to California in Jimmy McCormick's band. Both are of Blue Grass conception and both good colts. Last Thursday's defeat of both good colts. Last Thursday's defeat of Malvolio by Nuto and Don Quixote takes off some of the shine of the colt's doings in 1897. But he is a good individual. There is no doubt about that, Malvolio has started eleven times this year and his record is:

Last Thursday's can be charged to bad racing luck. When he ran fourth to McIvor, Farrell luck. When he ran fourth to McIvor. Farrell and Banished, June 16 last, there was less than a good aspect about the race

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mrs. Langtry's Merman, 5, by Grand Flaneur Seaweed, an Australian horse, won the Caesarwitch, at Newmarket, Eng., Wednesday last. Keenan and St. Cloud II. American horses also ran. Tod Sloan rode St. Cloud II and the English critics regard him as a humorist in the line of horsemanship. Merman was a 20 to 1 shot, and Mrs. Langtry is credited with a win of $200,000 or so over his victory.

A. H. & D. H. Morris have made arrangements with Milton Young to place the famous St. Florian in the stud at McGrathiana for the next three years. The famous son of St. Blaise and Feu Follett is now in Texas, and with a dozen mares will be at once sent to McGrathiana.

Islington, the English horse, brother to Isinglass, who has been serving as a sire in California, has gone back to England. Mr. McCalmont, owner of Isinglass, owns him.

Winner—B. c. by Eolus—Gladiola.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two. Al Fresco ran the best race. He was interfered with and sharply cut off on the first turn, but stood a drive of three-eighths of a mile gamely. Burns' fluish on him was powerful. Udsh looked like a sure winner seventy yards away but weakened badly at the end. Isiaria finished strong. So did Sir Hobart. The latter is an unlucky colt. Bob Again got away flying and showed a lot of speed. He went all to pieces though when the pinch came. Mary Will was sharply cut off on the far turn. Judicious was killed off chasing Bob Again.

Scratched—Long Suit, 167; Cutter, 110; Little Alarm, 102; Badaire, 92.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second well in hand after an early drive; others doing their best. The weight on Ace is what made the price. He handled it like a gentleman and showed to be the best of the lot. He is real good now and it will take a good horse to beat him at a mile. Lady Inez looked well and ran a good race. She was a triffe high in flesh and short. Muskalonge's hard race in the mud the day before did him no good. Rudolph had his speed but was poorly handled. He can win soon.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. The other two were driving. Buck Massie was at his best and toyed with his field. He is the best horse at the track right now. Laureate was poorly handled. He was pocketed until Lady Callahan ran out. The latter would have been a keen contender had the boy been able to keep her in. She is good now and should win her next.

Winner—B. c., by Sayre—Helianthus.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won well in hand; second driving and staggering; third and fourth hard driven too. Dave Waldo got away well on his stride and nothing ever got near him. He is a fast colt, but faint hearted. Had anybody gons along with him the chances are he would not have been among the first three. Daily Racing Form seemed to be going easily on the turn, but weakened when straightened out. Knowles finished strong. The Professor never showed any great amount of speed. His race was below par. Surmount and Mordecai both ran poor races.

Post 1 minute. Start good; all the first four were driving hard. Sunburst would have won in another jump. He was coming and Gold Band stopping at the finish. Morgan held Gold Band together nicely. The filly wanted to swerve the last sixteenth. Swordsman ran his usual honest race. Gaston had miserable racing luck. He was in a pocket and galloping down the back stretch. Admetus weakened in the final drive.

Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Mary Kinsella was best and lucky. She skinned the rails down the back stretch and escaped interference. Whirmantiline showed some speed. Pacemaker is a bad horse. He could not keep up the first part of it and made a weak effort at the finish. Globe II ran a good race under a strong ride. Lottie Burns will hardly do. Burns punished her hard all the way.
